

First Aid Training

We are holding several First Aid courses throughout April and there are very few spaces available. If you have been unfortunate to miss out this time around, please let us know and we will ensure you are put onto the next available course.

To find out further information and availability on this course please speak to Karen Funnell on 0118 9566995.